

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Charles M. Dutcher, aged 14, and Miss Flora Warner, 13, have just married at Bluffton, Ind.

—Mr. Edward Wright, 26, and Miss Laura McCain, 23, were married at Mill-ledgeville Sunday.

—Mrs. Dr. Emig, of Columbus, O., cut her husband with a butcher knife because he was late in coming to his dinner.

—It is said that Rev. F. S. Politti's bride can whisper words of endearment to seven different languages.—Winches-Democrat.

—John Ellison, of Frankfort, Ind., wants a divorce from his wife because she snores so loud he can not sleep in the room with her.

—Gen. Justin McKinstry, aged 80, is to wed a young society woman of St. Louis the same day on which his granddaughter will become a bride.

—A Huron, Kansas, man whose fatal gift of beauty made him the target of numerous women's darts will have to root his hereafter. His wife in a jealous rage threw carbolic acid in his face, putting out an eye and terribly disfiguring him.

—Mrs. Price Gibson, a dashing widow, filed suit at Sebree against W. R. Woods, asking $5,000 for breach of promise. She claims that under a promise of marriage she unapologetically permitted him to take liberties which she thinks now he ought to pay high for.

—The Duke of Marlborough has announced his engagement to Miss Constance Vanderbilt, daughter of W. K. Vanderbilt. Thus the ninth Duke of Marlborough follows the example of his father, George Charles Spencer-Churchill, eighth Duke of Marlborough, who came to America and won Mrs. Louis Hamersley with her many millions.

—Friends of Miss Julia Stephenson and Mr. Martin Hardin, of Kentucky, deny that their engagement has been broken off, and declare that the rumor is only a piece of early fall gossip, says a dispatch to the Louisville Times, thereby confirming that there is an engagement, though the Interior Journal was charged with announcing it without grounds.

—To keep her sweetheart out of the penitentiary, Mattie Atkins, who lived on the Big Sandy, in this State, swore that he could not have committed the offense charged, because on the day it occurred he was with her many miles away. It saved him, but on proof being presented that the fair Mattie had sworn to a lie, she was herself sent up for one year. If the fellow has a spark of manliness we should think he would not enjoy freedom obtained at such a cost.

—Mr. A. Logan Denny, a prominent Danville druggist and son of Mr. A. K. Denny, was married Saturday to Miss Fannie Phillips, daughter of Mr. B. F. Phillips, the wholesale liquor dealer at Danville. The wedding occurred at the home of an aunt of the bride at Loveland, O. Miss Beale Woolfolk and Mr. George Spillman accompanied Mr. Denny to Ohio and were the attendants. The bride is quite wealthy, in her own right, while her father has a fine estate. Mr. Denny is rapidly adding to his patrimony, so they certainly have one essential to happiness, and their friends say, all the others.

Resolutions.

Before adjourning the very interesting and instructive meeting, the following resolutions were adopted by the colored institute:

Whereas we the teachers of Lincoln county have been in institute assembled for one week, therefore be it,

Resolved 1st, That from a point of practical utility we regard this session as having been of exceptional benefit; and that we tender Miss Kate Blain, county superintendent, our hearty thanks for the great amount of interest manifested in the success of our institute and particularly for having secured the services of Prof. C. O. Monroe as conductor.

2d, That we extend to Conductor Monroe our sincere appreciation of his interesting and highly valuable suggestions upon the theory and practice of teaching. That we extend to Miss Lula Wade as secretary and Dr. W. D. Tardif as organizer our thanks for services rendered and also to Mr. P. H. Idol for the use of an organ, which contributed largely to the success of our meeting.

3d, That we appreciate the addresses from Col. T. P. Hill and Mr. G. W. Gentry and cordially thank the citizens of Stanford and Interior Journal for the great interest manifested in us.

Since in the midst of life we should always revere the memory of our honored dead, therefore be it

Resolved, That we the teachers of Lincoln county in institute assembled express our regret in the death of our late Superintendent W. F. McClary, whose kind disposition and many dealings caused all who knew him to honor and respect him.

PLEASE O. ROBINSON,
MOLLIE B. GIVENS,
ISAAC FISHER,
E. B. COOK,
WM. D. TARDIF, JR.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Bishop Fitzgerald dedicated a Methodist church at Rome, Italy, Friday.

—A stalk of corn in Taylor county is said to be 27½ feet high and to have 14 ears on it.

—Prof. J. B. Jones, of Hamilton College, will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning.

—Rev. J. S. Sims, who used to be pastor here, has returned to his old love from the West Virginia conference.

—Mrs. Owsley, the female evangelist, is drawing very large crowds to the camp meeting, Beech Grove, in Graves county.

—The Register says that Rev. George O. Barnes will hold a 10 days meeting at Richmond beginning the first week in October.

—The 15th annual convention of the Kentucky Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Lexington, September 26-29, inclusive.

—Rev. Dr. Talmage has decided to accept a call to the First Presbyterian church at Washington, President Cleveland's church, and will be installed Oct. 10.

—Moody and Sankey, who held meetings during the World's Fair and connected much of the harm done by the reign of vice, are going to hold similar meetings at Atlanta during the exposition.

—Rev. W. E. Arnold was elected one of the assistant secretaries of the conference at Winchester and he and F. S. Politti and R. H. Wightman compose the committee to examine second year applicants.

—Mrs. Talitha Campbell Sweeney, whose husband was a preacher and who raised four sons, who are now preachers, including Elder John S. Sweeney, of Paris, died at Newnan, Ill., at the home of her daughter last week, aged 85. The family were originally from Casey county, Ky.

—As has been his custom for years Mr. E. B. Caldwell, Jr., has sent us the minutes of the Cumberland River Association for publication in pamphlet form. The meeting was with Lily church, Pulaski county, and was the 80th year of its existence. There are 17 churches in the association and they report a membership of 2,106, an increase of 292 by baptism, letter, &c., and a decrease of 76 by death, letter and exclusion. The meeting next year will be at Pleasant Run, 14 miles East of Somerset.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—October 8 there will be a reunion of the Blue and the Gray on the battlefield of Perryville.

—Col. Underwood's little child died of diphtheria near Hubble Sunday and an infant of Henry Spoonamore of brain fever the same day.

—The Orphan Brigade will meet at Bowling Green on the 24th where extensive preparations are being made to entertain the gallant band.

—The Walla Walla Chewing Gum Company, of Middlesboro, has been granted the exclusive privilege in their line at the Atlanta Exposition.

—At the Laurel Coal Company's mines near Pittsburg a high trestle collapsed with eight loaded cars drawn by a mule. George Creacy, the driver, was fatally hurt.

HUBBLE.

—Mrs. Menefee and a beel cow to J. M. Snow at 21.

—Mr. Ed Miller had a cow to founder and die by eating sweet potato vines.

—Stock water is failing in this locality, which has never been known to fail before.

—Diphtheria seems to be spreading in this community, though so far it has not been fatal. Dr. Herring reports the worst case now at Frank Todd's. Two new cases have developed in his family in the last few days. The schools have all stopped indefinitely on account of it.

—Mr. Tom Mock and wife have returned to their home in Lexington. Mrs. Laura Johnson and daughter, of Farmer's City, Ill., are with her brother, Wm. Watson, here for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen and Lee Innes, of Illinois, are visiting Mr. Fred Yeaky and connections in this neighborhood. Dr. Lewis reports Mr. S. L. Spoonamore and little son very sick of malarial fever. Rankin Bros. of Wayne county, are up looking after mule colts. Mr. John Gardner and wife, of Price's Branch, Mo., are visiting relatives here. Dr. Kinard was called to see Mrs. G. A. Swinebroad again a few days ago and it is thought she is some better at this writing.

—Corn is selling at 8 cents a bushel at Hutchison, Kansas.

—Frank Kemp, who killed his father at Kokomo, Ind., has been indicted for murder.

—Henry of Navarre was favorite in the Oriental Handicap at Gravesend Saturday, but he did no better than third. Clifford won with Sir Evers second.

—The Paris Steam Laundry, owned by Hinton & Young, was totally destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $5,000. Craddock will have to wash his own shirt now.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Josh B. Jones sold in Cincinnati a lot of lambs at 3 to 4½c.

For Sale.—3,000 bales of excellent hay. Josh B. Jones, Stanford, Ky.

—Clover Seed—I want a huller at my farm immediately. Jos. Ballou.

—Fourteen of the Terre Haute fall race stakes have a total entrance of 351 horses.

—We have 75 good stock hogs for sale. All good stock. Pawell & Harper, Hustonville.

—A Greenup county man claims to have raised a watermelon that weighed 116 pounds.

—Eugene Leigh has sold his crack two-year-old, Ben Brush, to Mike Dwyer for $12,000.

—J. S. Bosley sold to Josh Adams 15 cattle, 1,040 lbs. average, at 4c and four of lighter weight at 3½c.

—Sale of shoats at 4c, 1,200 lb. cattle at 3½ and 750 lb. steers at 3½ are reported in the Winchester Democrat.

—Stock hogs sold at 5c, clover hay at $7 a ton and corn at $1.25 in the field and $1.50 in the crib at a sale in Fayette.

—J. W. Lambert, of Rockcastle, bought Mrs. Lucy Martin's farm of 108 acres in Madison at $30. Corn sold at $1.25 per barrel.

—Dr. Rue Shannon bought the Camp Dick Robinson farm in Garrard of 335 acres at $70.10. This doesn't look like land is depreciating in price.

—Thomas Metcalf, Wilmore, bought of R. A. Dodd 200 barrels of corn to be delivered Nov. 10, at an average of $1.37½ per barrel.—Jeansville Journal.

—Carroll B. Reid has refuted $5,000 for his splendid racer, Sherlock. Millionaire Fleischman made the offer. The horse cost Mr. Reid less than $200.

—Besides his good work with Robert J. El Geers, has given Nightengale, 2:02½, Star Pointer, 2:05½, and Bright Regent, 2:05½, their present records this year.

—The Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, of Lexington, has closed a contract for Liberty's famous band to furnish music during the October trots.

—O. L. Carter bought the Joe Goode farm at the sale Saturday at $45.12½ per acre. It contains 60 acres. Corn sold at $1.25 in the heap; 1,100 pound feeders 3:40; milk cows $30 to $35.

—Powell & Harper bought of M. S. & J. W. Baughman a pair of heavy gray horses for $150. These gentlemen will take a car load of horses to North Carolina this week to dispose of.

—Another Kentucky creamery has gone the way of its predecessors. The one at Mayfield, which cost $3,000 sold last week at auction for $825. It was a losing investment from the start.

—Dandy Jim, formerly owned by Nimrod Buster, of Boyle, went the last heat of the free-for-all trot at Huntington, Ind., in 2:11½, which is the world's trotting race record on a half-mile track.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Carroll Reid, the crack young trainer, will be a figure in the winter game this year. He is going to take Balk Line, Lindolite and four of his two-year-olds to New Orleans this winter."

—Henry Goodrip, of Delphos, O., had asow to give birth to 12 pigs, three of which have five legs each, two have double heads, another is blessed with three eyes, while another has an extra well developed tail growing from its back.

—William Rue, of Danville, had things his own way at Elizabethtown fair. He took the premium on stallion four-years-old and over, saddle stallion any age, harness stallion four-years-old and over, saddle and harness mare any age and combined stallion any age.

—J. W. Baileys shipped 10 car loads of cattle to Lehman & Bro., at Baltimore, for export to London. There were 170 head and the average weight was 1,500 pounds. The price was 4½c. A draft for $12,131.69 was drawn in payment of them.—Richmond Pantagraph.

—Capt. H. T. Bush reports Mrs. Belle Worley's sale as follows: Aged mules $45 to $50; horse colts $15; cows and pigs $15 to $25; heifers $10 to $13; steers $20; corn $1 per barrel in the field, purchaser to cut it, oats $1.75 per 100; bundles, sorghum $6 an acre. Farming implements and other things sold well.

—Josh B. Jones tells us that the On Time saddle stallion he shipped to his brother, John, at St. Joseph, Mo., has proven a great show horse this year. Besides taking premiums at every fair that he has been shown, he captured the rich stake for saddle stallions at the St. Joseph fair. He has refused several handsome offers for him.

—At the sale of Joel Embury's effects in Madison Friday low prices ruled throughout. A fine mare that he had refused $500 for brought $90; a standard-bred and registered stallion $65; an imported two-year-old jack $25; a pair of 16½ hand five-year-old mare mules $135; horses $30 to $40; milk cows $18 to $30; hogs 5c. One farm of 270 acres rented for $62 till Jan. 1, '96 and the other of 175 acres rented for $45. The heavy cattle owned by the deceased were shipped. Corn was taken down at 93 cents in the field.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—J. A. Dean, of Lower Garrard, sold his farm of 200 acres to Allen and Geo. Teater for $3,700.

—Miss Dove B. Harris is teaching a large school at Benna Vista. She is a capable teacher, having taught for a number of years.

—Rev. T. H. Campbell has returned from Middleburg, where he assisted in a most successful meeting, having had 10 or more additions.

—Rev. Joe Hopper, well known to so many Lancaster people, is conducting a successful meeting at Paint Lick. He has already had many additions to the church.

—The members of the Baptist church are trying to purchase the lot adjoining the church. $500 is asked for it. The ladies of the church have already secured a portion of the money.

—The ladies of Old Paint Lick church will give a supper Wednesday evening. The Lancaster brass band, which has already won quite a reputation for good music, will be present on this occasion.

—John Ison has rented the farm of Thomas Hudson for three years at $125. John C. Hinson has rented the Hiram Campbell farm for 1896 and Albert Church farm of Mrs. Kate Murtry, all in Lower Garrard.

—Under the faithful ministry and the untiring efforts of Elder George Gowen, there are frequent additions to the Christian church. Wednesday evening at prayer meeting three young people made a public confession of their faith. They were baptized in Dix River Thursday afternoon.

—Sparks, of Nicholasville, bought of Ben Humphrey a mule for $50. James Burnside bought of George Elam two calves for $20. J. B. Rubles bought of J. L. McMurry a lot of lambs at 2½c. Leonard Preston sold two plug horses to Frank Folger at $15 each. The E. J. Terrill farm was sold at $15 per acre by the administrator.

—Dr. Russell Shannon, of Texas, purchased the Camp Dick Robinson farm of 335 acres at $70.10. It will be remembered that the Camp won its name from the original owner, Dick Robinson, for a number of years deceased, but who can now be remembered by many for his warm and true Kentucky hospitality. It was in war times that many a weary and wounded soldier found rest and kindness in the shelter of this man's home. None were turned away but all alike were made to feel the same kindly welcome and many a scarred and feeble veteran left this hospitable home showering richest blessings upon its inmates.

—Mr. A. H. Garrison and wife, of Eldorado, Kansas, are the guests of relatives and friends here. B. A. Spencer, of Louisville, has been visiting his parents here. Mr. A. B. Price and Master Joe Price visited Danville relatives Saturday.

—Mrs. D. M. Lackey has returned from a visit to Madison. Mrs. Betsy Stewart Johnson, of Wisconsin, is the guest of Mrs. Belle Burnside. Judge Thomas, of Leadville, Col., is visiting Garrard county friends. Walter Blatt, of Lexington, was here last week. Misses Sallie Tillet and Laura Smith are in Louisville purchasing a nice supply of the latest style millinery. Prof. C. H. Pogue, of Kirksville, was here Sunday. Dr. George Petty, who was called here by the serious illness and death of his brother, left Monday for his home in Missouri. Horace Herndon entered Centre College at Danville last week.

—Miss Carrie Curry has returned from a visit to her brother, Jamee Curry, of Louisville. After a visit of several months to her sister, Mrs. T. J. B. Turner, Mrs. Jessie Harley and little daughter, Mary Kate, leave to-morrow for their home in Nashville. Rev. Lucien Noel left last week for Princeton, N. J., to enter the Theological Seminary. Mrs. Will Wherritt left Friday for Versailles to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey. Mrs. Wm. Jones and children have returned to Winchester. Rev. F. M. Hill, Messrs. J. B. Turner and Richard Ward and Mrs. George Patterson have been in attendance at the Methodist Conference in Winchester.

—Hon. A. J. Carroll, of Louisville, says he has pledged votes enough to insure his election as Speaker of the next House in case of his own election to the Legislature, which is conceded.

—Gov. Turney created a sensation during the Cincinnatus exercise by saying that during the war he thought the South was right, that he still thought so and would teach his children so.

—It is estimated that the American people have invested $25,000,000 in bicycles this year, and that the demand for wheels in the next 12 months will be about 700,000. Meanwhile horses are selling in Idaho at $15 a dozen.

—In the Plaisance in the Atlanta exposition there is a Cairo street, cochoche dancers, a Ferris wheel set on a high hill, Japanese, Chinese and Mexican villages, a toboggan slide down the Piedmont hills, Buffalo Bill and his Indians, a 49 California camp, a Georgia barbecue, with Sheriff Calloway, of Wilkes county, as the presiding officer, and about 275 other different fakes, good, bad and different.

W. P. WALTON.

The most eloquent, the most patriotic and the noblest of the beautiful sentiments expressed at the Chickamauga dedication were by that bravest of soldiers and broadest of statesmen, Gen. John B. Gordon, Senator from Georgia. It was a glorious occasion of reconciliation and brotherly love and no man in the Nation has done more to bring it about than the man who gave utterance to the words that stirred each old soldier to greater love for each other and to a high appreciation of a common country. It was meet that the remnant of those who 32 years ago bathed the earth in fratricidal strife with their blood should meet upon the identical spot and over the graves of the 30,000 who fell in battle, pledge eternal friendship, but in no other country under the sun could such a reunion have been possible. God bless the men who fought on the Southern as well as on the Northern side. They were equally as honest in their convictions and an impartial history will accord them their full measure of praise.

All honor to the noble men who fought whether under the star and stripes or the stars and bars.

We appreciate the compliment that Editor Smith pays our personal pulchritude. It is about the only truthful thing in his paper, except the confession in another article that he himself has "no more sense." Usually this great man's weakness for prevaricating amounts almost to a mania and it is refreshing to see that he can occasionally refrain from following his natural bent. He soon lapsed into falsification again, however, and wrote: "Editor Walton admits that he sacrificed his party and its nominees to gratify his individual hate," when Editor Walton never admitted any such thing, never thought of such a thing and would not do such thing. Furthermore we have no "individual hate to gratify." We never extenuate nor set down aught in malice. We print things as they appear at the time and it now appearing that Editor Smith has willfully, knowingly and maliciously fabricated, prevaricated, falsified and misrepresented, we hereby brand him as a fabulist, scribbler, whose hebdomadal fulminations produce ennui. Scat.

At a meeting of doctors and surgeons the other day, Dr. Hunter Maguire, of Richmond, Va., one of the most noted of his profession, in discussing the new disease of appendicitis said that the knife had been too freely used in its treatment and that it is curable without the aid of surgery, as he had found by trial. The tendency of the average doctor is to cut and carve on the slightest pretext, until some of them have come to be known as "Jack the Ripper." More men have been killed, says the eminent Richmond authority, by the surgical operation for appendicitis than have been saved, and this is true in most of such operations.

The new Commander of the G. A. R. is anxious to do something to let 'em know he is there. He will institute suit at once to test the question as to whether a pension is a vested right, when the Supreme Court has decided three separate times that it is not a vested right, but simply a bounty granted by Congress, which can modify or repeal the pension laws at will. The court will hardly reverse itself to please the Commander, who would have a pension continued after once granted, no matter how great was the fraud in obtaining it.

LOUISVILLE TRUTH, venerable and beloved Brother Walton, which has been "investigating" the record of Senator Blackburn, is the same Truth untruthfully charging that a high State official was the recipient of a $9,000 check from the Mason-Forde Company.—Covington Commonwealth. True, ancient and amiable Bro. Blakey, but liars occasionally tell the truth and Truth is for once backed up with irrefragable proof as to Blackburn's record, and we challenge you, his warmest friend, to attempt to controvert it.

M. W. HOWARD, Congressman elect from a Georgia district, is making popular speeches in the Southwestern part of this State. If he can speak on political subjects no better than he can lecture on the "Ups and Downs of Life," God pity his audiences. He will have the distinction of being the youngest man in Congress and the 15 or 20 persons here who heard him lecture are willing to accord him another distinction—that of being the biggest fool.

A new census shows the population of St. Paul, Minn., to be 140,202, while that of Minneapolis is 188,000. The former has bitten off a little more than she can chew in getting the next G. A. R. Encampment, unless she calls on her hated rival across the river for help.

EDITOR SMITH, of Mt. Vernon, accuses us of being two-faced. Sorry we cannot return the compliment. It is dead sure that he is not two-faced, for he would never have the gall to carry around the mug he does, if he had any other to present.

In the discussion of the decrease in drunkenness before the recent Medical-Legal Congress, it was asserted that it has not been caused by laws which attempt to make prohibition compulsory. The assertion is capable of proof. A public sentiment against drinking and the almost complete ostracism of the drunkard from society and business have helped temperance more than all the sumptuary laws ever enacted. It is no longer considered decent to be a whiskey guzzler and the man who humors his baser desires in that direction long soon finds himself without position socially and shunned by men who might otherwise employ him. The sentiment against drunkards is continually growing and with it the whiskey habit is rapidly going. When both the sale of liquors and the drinking of them are regarded universally as disreputable, there will be scarcely a dram shop and scarcely a patron of one.

BREX DYCHE, who presides over the London Echo, is very much like Vanderbilt said of his son-in-law, Editor Shepard—"more sorts of a d—n fool than any man living." Taking for his text our charge of gross carelessness against the jailer of Harlan in letting a prisoner condemned to death escape, he claims that we were actuated in our strictures by a desire to make political capital and regret over the fact that Attorney General Hendrick, who was to speak on the same day of the hanging, would now have no crowd. To the average glib-headed republican scribe, who measures everybody in his little half bushel, it seems preposterous that a man should have other than the baser motives, and the insinuation referred to is about in keeping with the ideas of the pack. Go soak your old mutton head, Dyche, and see if it won't aid in getting a decent thought into it.

The editors are enjoying their annual outing at Hopkinsville, where everything has been arranged for their enjoyment. To-morrow the L. & N. will take them in a body in a special train of Pullmans to Atlanta, where the exposition has arranged a program for their delectation. We had hoped to have been with the boys, old and young, but there's many a slip in human calculations, and instead we have to alternate between our office and the sick room, in which a little woman has been ill for a week. Though absent in body we are with them in spirit, and here's hoping the fullest expectations of each may be realized.

CARDS announcing that Mr. John W. Harris, the poet editor, now with the Louisville Post, will wed Miss Elia, daughter of Dr. J. H. Taylor, of Owensboro, Oct. 1, have been received. Mr. Harris is one of the brightest and readiest of writers and the step he is about to take further demonstrates his good sense, for we learn that the lady he has won is all that man could wish, being pretty, stylish, amiable and cultivated. St. Paul says that they that marry do well. Bro. Harris will not only do well, but exceedingly well and we gladly welcome a man with such good taste into the ranks of the Benedicts.

The address at Atlanta which has occasioned more favorable comment was delivered by a negro, Booker T. Washington, principal of the industrial school for colored people at Tuskegee, Ala. It was brimful of hard common sense, in which he advised his race to eschew politics, cease to seek the unattainable social equality, and by trained and useful occupation make themselves indispensable in the South, which is their natural home, and where the white people are more considerate and more in sympathy with their efforts to obtain a competency.

In his Elizabethtown speech Gen. Hardin went for Col. Bradley like a thousand of brick, accusing him of falsehood and charging him with slandering the good people of the State, when he declared at London that those who believed he was afraid to meet Hardin were liars, for half a million intelligent, thinking people thought he had acted cowardly in throwing up his contract to debate a certain number of times. Bradley will likely retort in kind, but as the battle is at exceedingly long range, no material damage will result.

HAVING exhausted the subject or the subject having exhausted him, the Rev. Peter Vinegar has ceased to expatiate on "A D—n Hot Day" and will hereafter dilate upon "Come Seven, Come Eleven," a subject with which most of his colored hearers will be familiar.

—Congressman McCreary recently told an Enquirer interviewer that he believed that the democrats would carry Kentucky this year by fully 30,000 majority. He had nothing to say concerning a third term for Mr. Cleveland. On the whole, we are disposed to regard Mr. McCreary as a level-headed man, who has the judgment and loyalty to rise to a democratic emergency, cuckoo though he be.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

—The snow storm in the West was unprecedented in severity for the season. A depth of from one to two feet is reported in the mountains of Colorado and Wyoming, while eight inches fell in Denver. Two boys are believed to have perished in the snow in Wyoming, and other suffering is reported. Fruit and shade trees are greatly damaged.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

The Grace Wharton Mission Band will give an old fashioned tea at Mrs. W. M. Bright's next Saturday, 28th, from 3 to 6 p. m. Admission 10 cents.

WANTED.—My old customers and new ones to know that I am again in Stanford on Lancaster street and would like their patronage. Miss Mary Davis Smith.

A drop of 30° to 40° in the temperature is predicted for this morning. Let 'em come. Everybody is worn out with this torrid weather, which is producing much sickness.

While we were sweltering in heat of nearly 100°, Rawlins, Wyo., enjoyed a snow storm which covered the earth on a level of eight inches. Snow also fell at Laramie and Salt Lake, Utah.

The Stanford base ball club will play two games on their grounds here this week. The Crab Orchard and Lancaster teams are the limbs for sacrifice and the games will be played Thursday and Saturday afternoons.

The Laurel county miners who have been on a strike since May have returned to work on last year's scale of wages, 70 cents a ton. The operators refused to negotiate with the Knights of Labor, but communicated directly with the men.

While currying one of his horses Friday, Mr. Samuel M. Owens, late jailer of this county, was severely kicked by the animal. One foot struck him in the face, cutting an ugly gash on the cheek and badly bruising his entire face. The wound is a very painful one and will leave an ugly scar.

DEATH.—Col. W. G. Welch received a dispatch from Dallas, Texas, yesterday, saying that Mrs. Mattie Gano, wife of Gen. R. M. Gano, died at 7:40 of dengué. She was the oldest of the daughters of the late Dr. Welch and was raised at Crab Orchard. A husband and seven grown children survive her to grieve over the loss of a model wife and a devoted mother.

The cooler weather promised Friday did not materialize. A hot wave from the South knocked the cold wave from the North sky high and it got even red hotter than ever. It was somewhat cooler yesterday, when showers were predicted with fair much cooler Tuesday. It is exceedingly dry and the question of stock water is very serious, many having to haul it for miles and others driving stock four and five miles to it.

The ganzy story of five men being killed at Adams & Trowbridge's distillery near Waynesburg, sent out from McKinney, proved to be a fake of the first water with not even a shadow of a ground for it. W. O. Goodloe, Esq., and two Swopes, of Boyle, were given in the list of killed, when none of them had been out of the county. The McKinney correspondent is evidently burning for such reputation as the Sergeant and Soldier reporters who have some sensation daily from their God knows where localities.

STANFORD AND LANCASTER.—Dr. Lee R. Yates, of Hiawatha, Kansas, enjoyed his visit to his old stamping ground immensely. There were many old friends left to greet him and he made many new ones out of the children of those he used to know. Of those who were here in his boyhood days only five survive: Mrs. VanAredale, Mrs. Maria Warren, J. Newton Craig, J. S. Hughes and Mack Huffman. There are only two houses on Main street now that were standing then, the one occupied by Mr. Sim Wortham and the other by Armp Salter. The latter was the boyhood home of a man who afterwards rose to prominence, Gen. Lovell Rousseau. The doctor has been gone 18 years and in that time he says there have been wonderful changes here, hardly a house remaining like it was and "it looks like a thousand new ones have been built," he added. "I was over in Lancaster, Friday, to see my uncle, Eph Brown, and there it is just the reverse of what it is in Stanford. Everything looks like it did 18 years ago and if there have been any new houses of consequence built I failed to see them." The Record will please copy this puff of its town and if there are any charges draw on the doctor through the First National Sand Bank of the Grasshopper State. Dr. Yates left for his home yesterday, after joining his wife at Nicholasville, who had come with him to visit her people. He was so much pleased with his visit that he will wager that it put a stronger desire in him to return to his native State, which of course he will do yet. No true Kentuckian will stay away always.

—D. M. Mustain, a common school teacher of Warren county, has been sued for $1,000 damage for whipping 17-year-old Malinda Bledsoe.

—A $25,000 wreck on the Norfolk & Western, near Ironton, O., was caused by running over a $35 cow. Two men were fatally hurt.

—Susan Johnson, colored, aged 60, went to sleep smoking at her home near Russellville. The heat clothes caught and she was burned to death.

—Squire J. S. Murphy left at this office two ears of corn grown by T. A. Coulter on the Squire's farm on the Hustonville pike, which weigh 4 pounds and 3 ounces. One has 22 rows and 1,000 grains on it and is as large as a full size sugar loaf.

—In Peking, China, there are from 2,000 to 3,000 deaths per day from cholera.

—Two men were killed and four injured by the explosion of a boiler at the Dayton, O., infirmary.

—A schooner from an Oregon port collided with a 60-foot whale and got the worst of it, being so disabled that she had to put for land.

—At Cleveland a mother tried to start a fire with kerosene. One child is dead, the mother will die and another child was seriously burned.

—One of the chemists of the Chicago University says the essential food elements of a 1,200 pound steer can be placed in an ordinary pill-box.

—A company has been organized at Cincinnati for developing 112,000 acres of coal and oil lands along the Cumberland river in Kentucky and Tennessee.

—Five persons were drowned in Lake Michigan Sunday while bathing, three more were drowned at Buffalo and three others in the surf at Manassquan, N. J.

—One of the features of the parade at Chattanooga was a company of ex-Confederates wearing their old gray uniforms and carrying the stars and stripes.

—Spain is preparing to send 25,000 more troops to Cuba to suppress the rebellion, to be followed if necessary by enough to increase the Spanish army in Cuba to 200,000 men.

—Miss Nannie Gastineau, a teacher in the public schools at Lexington, married clandestinely last year, made it public yesterday. Married teachers are not allowed in the Lexington schools.

—The longest bridge in the world is the Lion Bridge, near Saugang, China. It extends five and one fourth miles over an arm of the Yellow Sea, and is supported by 300 huge stone arches. The roadway is 70 feet above the water and is enclosed in an iron netting.

—Here's a new kink: The Chicago Great Western railroad, which has never allowed newboys or "bitchers" on its trains, will on Thursday begin furnishing to its patrons free newspapers and magazines, to be had of the porter on application. A meal and chrono will be the next to be thrown in.

—The president's next message will suggest retiring the greenbacks and ask congress to confer upon the secretary of the treasury power to sell long-term low-rate gold bonds in sufficient amount to call in and cancel all the outstanding paper money that is being employed to draw gold from the treasury.

ATLANTA EXPOSITION.—One of the greatest fairs ever known to America. Many features of the Chicago World's fair and many additional and new ones. Open September 18th to December 31st, 1895. Low rates via the Queen & Crescent Route. Write to W. O. Rineason, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O., for printed matter, or call upon Q. & C. Agents for full information.

THERE was a hung jury in the case of Marshal Ellis, of Junction City, for the killing of Caze Rowsey. Eight of the jurors were for acquittal and four for manslaughter. Another case for murder against Ellis was set for yesterday.

It is a little hot to talk about wraps, but Messrs. A. B. Robertson & Bro. dis- course entertainingly about them, to the ladies at least, in another column. They have the largest stock in this whole sec- tion and now is the chance to get first choice.

ONE of our nominees for State office is slated to speak here—Hon. R. T. Tyler, candidate for lieutenant-gov- ernor, who will be with us Oct. 18. He will also speak at Richmond and Dan- ville, on the 17th and 19th, respectively. Mr. Tyler is sound on the money ques- tion and construes the platform like ev- erybody does in this section.

NOT FOR FREE SILVER, BUT—Having been told that Mr. B. B. King had been preaching free silver along with his free turnpike doctrine, a reporter of the In- terior Journal asked him about his po- sition on the currency question. His reply was, "I am not a free silver man, but I think silver ought to have a better place than it has. But it is useless for a jack-leg like I am to try to solve the question, when great men like John Sherman and John G. Carlisle have failed to do so." Mr. King is evidently trying very hard to lay his convictions upon the altar of party good and is a lit- tle shy of himself.

THE republican county committee met here Saturday afternoon and was presid- ed over by Chairman Geo. M. Davison. The object being to name candidates for certain offices, Mr. T. J. Culton named Mr. B. B. King for representative and he was unanimously selected. Mr. John H. Chappell nominated Miss Kate Blain for school superintendent and she too received a unanimous nomination. Mr. King was called on for a speech and re- sponded in a few words, in which he promised to do his best for election and if the committee and others would do likewise, he thought he would pull through. No further business appear- ing, the committee adjourned.

M. F. NORTH, Esq., democratic nomi- nee for representative, will speak at Mc- Kinney, Oct. 7th; Kingsville, 8th, and Waynesburg, 9th, at 1:30 p. m. Bald Knob school house, 9th, at night; Bee Lick, 10th, and Crab Orchard, 11th, at 1:30 p. m.; Preachersville, 11th, at night; Gosben, 12th, at 1:30 p. m.; Stanford, 14th, at 1 p. m.; Hubble school house, 14th, at night; Carter's store, Highland, 15th, at 1:30 p. m. and Ottenheim same date at night; Higgins' store, 16th; May- wood, 17th; McCormack's school house, 18th; Milledgeville, 19th; Richards' school house, 28th; South Fork, 29th, and Turnersville, 30th, at 1:30 p. m. each place. An invitation is extended the ladies to be present and an equal divi- sion of time will be granted Mr. B. B. King.

WRAPS For Everybody.

We now have our entire line of Cloaks and Capes open and on sale. We confidently expect the largest cloak business we have ever had. The styles are radically different from last year, they are ve- ry cheap, and as this has been a very prosperous year with everybody we know they will have new cloaks. We will not pretend to de- scribe any garments as we have too many styles for that. We can, however, give you a general idea of our stock and invite you to give it a look.

PLUSH AND VELOUR CAPES.

These are the dressy wraps of the season and will be greatly used for finer garments. We have them in every quality from $6 all the way up to $35. They come plain and with fur trimming and more elaborate styles elegantly trimmed with Jet, fur and braids. We can please any taste in these and fit any purse in the prices.

CLOTH CAPES.

We have great quantities of Cloth Capes, varying in price from a neatly trimmed, full sweep, wool cape at $2, up to handsome ones for $20. These come in Beavers, Kerseys, Cheviots, Boucli, As- trachan, &c., &c. Special capes for mourning and for elderly ladies, about 40 different styles in all.

FUR CAPES.

While not so much in demand as last year, we expect a fair sale for these serviceable garments, and can offer you special values in As- trachan, Wool Seal, French Seal, Coney, &c.

NEW SHORT JACKETS.

These are stylish. They are new, and no where in Kentucky will you find a prettier line than we will offer you. Every kind of smooth cloth, but the rough ones, such as Boucli, Montagniac, Cheviots, &c., are the ones that the craze is for. Prices range from $5 to $25. New sleeves on all our jackets, 3-piece sleeve, 5-piece sleeve, "Melon" sleeve, "Foot Ball" sleeves, &c. No old styles. We have in stock 250 Jackets for you to select from.

MISSES JACKETS.

We have a beautiful line of stylish fancy short wraps, just to suit girls 12 to 18 years old. These are made in latest shapes and newest materials and are different from what you will see elsewhere. Prices range from $5 to $15.

10 TO 1.

We can show you 10 new styles in wraps where any other house in this section will show you one. Comparison will also show that we give you better value. The moral of all this is that you should buy your Cloaks from
